Vision

Kagman High School's vision is to establish a comprehensive educational program that reflects the varied needs of all our students.

Mission

The mission of Kagman High School is to provide learning environments where democratic ideals are lived, best possible teachers and staff are provided, and where people want to be.

A WORD FROM OUR PRINCIPLE.

Dr. Alfred Avela

Greetings!

It is with great pleasure that we present to you the 2012-2013 edition of our Kagman High School yearbook celebrating our 11th year since we opened our doors to the community.

Since its inception in 2002, the winds of change have dictated us to grow, learn, and expand our methods of accomplishing our goals. In previous years, the KHS yearbook was produced by an independent company through web-based technology. This year is different; the economical wind of change has forced us to step back and think realistically. Thus, I am acknowledging that the Digital Age is leaving a big impression in our lives. Technology is increasingly present in our youths' formal and informal education, becoming as common as pencils and notebooks were to their parents. The 21st century embraces both learning from classrooms and long-distance online education. From Twitter to Facebook, students are utilizing digital media as a means of connecting, communicating, and learning with others throughout the world. These new pupils understand the importance of expanding their horizons, especially in an environment with rapidly advancing technology.

Nonetheless, it has been a very active and rewarding school year. Our time has been filled with traditional high school events: pep rallies, listening to loud music at lunch, and big Screen on the Green Friday night movies. We've had our community collaborate with agency-organized presentations, scholarship champions have come to impart their success stories to our students, and many worthwhile occasions have opened doors of opportunities for our students. Without the commitment and dedication of all members of the KHS community, such events would not have been possible. My sincere thanks to everyone who has helped provide these irreplaceable experiences.

Finally, with a compilation of memorable pictures and words, we close this year's yearbook with a tribute to our graduating senior class—the Class of 2013! A special thanks to Mrs. Irene Park and all her students involved in the publication of this year book. Your support and dedication is very much appreciated. I am sure that you and your family will find the pages of this yearbook edition full of fond memories that we can continue to reminisce with for years to come. My wish to all our students and graduates is to love your family, love your friends, and love yourself—all the rest will follow!

Enjoy! Have Fun and may the mighty AYUYUs endure the Winds of Change!

Sincerely,

Mr. Alfred B. Avela, Ed. D

A WORD FROM YOUR STUCO PRESIDENT

Shawn Kyle Butters

Hey, what's up Kagman High?!

Well this year sure was a lil' different from our previous years. From the tragedy of being forced to take online classes, to the new bell schedule, to the firework incidents that stopped our pep rallies & field day, to trying our best at all the sports against the other schools...and remember the shock of Ms. Q coming back to give us all work detail? This year was definitely something to remember!

But what didn't and will never change is the undying AYUYU spirit and pride that lies within each student at Kagman High School. As your STUCO President of SY 12-13, I have a couple of words I'd like to say:

To the Teachers, Admin & Staff; thank you for your never ending support in the process of teaching us. We learned well from all of you.

To the Freshmen, I'd like to advise you not to wish for graduation to come soon; enjoy every day for time flies by faster than you think!

To the Sophomores, you learned from being a freshmen that high school isn't as easy as Jr. high, but it's sure as heck more fun. And don't worry, the best part has yet to come.

To the Juniors, you got one more year left so make it worth it! Don't pass up any great opportunities that come your way.

To the graduating Senior class of 2013: live life to the fullest! High School is over, but the real world has just begun. And no, it's not YOLO, it's:

Carpe diem.

Remember; you only got one shot, so give it all you got.

A-Y-U-Y-U!!!!!!

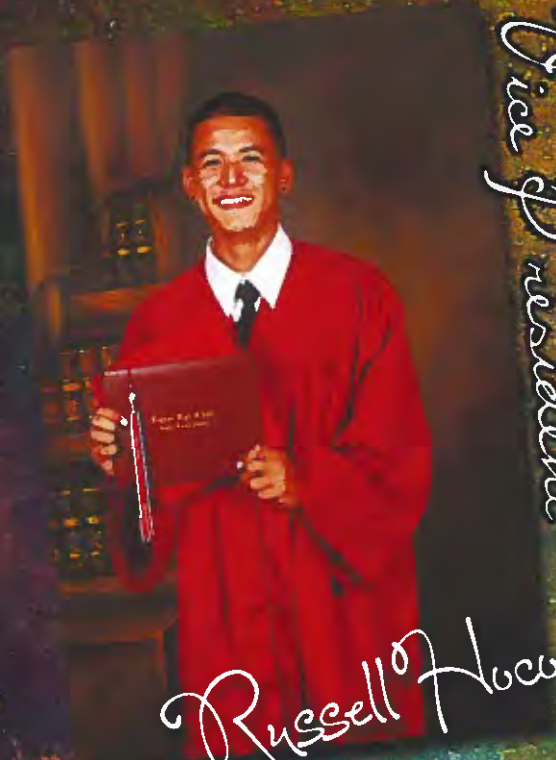

Sincerely, Your STUCO President,

Somebody

* Picks pencil up *

Dear Journal,
From the bottom of the food chain to the top of the pyramid, our 4 years are gone. POOF! We've come through together. Now we go separate ways. NOT a goodbye, but an arrivederci. C/O '13, we're ready for the world. Thing is... I'm not sure if the world's ready for us.

xoxo,
Irene

It's a long way home
 At the end of the road

 day
 And live for the moment, not by

"It doesn't matter where we came from, what color we are, or what language we spoke. We all came together as one. We welcomed everyone with open arms. We treated each other with open arms. We all treat each other as brothers and sisters. We had respect for one another. We did more than just perform our cultural dance. We went out and showed our community what we could do. We participated in many activities that were happening around the island. We helped spread our culture and club from performing cultural dance to caroling around the island. So, basically RCC is a club that helps spread out culture and language to those who are willing to learn."

Dear Yearbook Members.

What a great year! Thank you for all your hard work and dedication to make this book memorable. I hope that every time you open this book you will remember all the moments (the good the bad and of course the ugly) we had together throughout this school year. I will always remember your creative talent and school spirit -- you've made this school year so wonderful!

And make sure the future members are willing to work hard!

Lorie, I'll see you in Azkaban.

High School.

It was the Best of times,
It was the Worst of times.

A place where the awesome can be themselves
Where the lazy can cheat themselves
Where the real can love themselves
Where the fake can – oh, well
As we sit here and laugh
About the how the times passed
So fast, I gotta say,
“I HAD A BLAST!”

We started at the bottom of this
High school phrase called “the food chain”
Intimidating words,
Yet observe how easily one can go from being low to
On-a-roll in Honor roll
We turn this tassel ‘cause we’re blessed to be the best
& only the greatest of the great
Truly have the power to do the honor
Silence the rest

Class of 2K13

We had the best and worst 4 years
Of our lives in those classrooms
We are the legends that ever walked through those halls
Some said we shouldn’t,
We’re here because we did
Some said we couldn’t,
Look at the outcome of it all
We are ready for the world,
But I don’t think the world is ready for us
Finally, as we turn our tassels from right to left,
We give our one last battle cry
-- “A-Y-U-Y-U!”

High school,
It was the Best of times,
It was the Worst of times.
